

Polish diploma	$W=0,75*OD + 0,25*\acute{S}O$ OD: Points for the grade obtained on a higher education diploma calculated according to the formula: $OD = 100 * \frac{grade - O \ min}{O \ max - O \ min}$ grade – grade on the candidate's diploma; O min – the lowest possible grade to obtain, on the scale in which the grade was given; O max – the highest possible grade to obtain, on the scale in which the grade was given. \acute{S}O The points for the average grade from studies are calculated according to the formula: $\acute{S}O = 100 * \frac{average \ grade - O \ min}{O \ max - O \ min}$ average grade – average grade on the candidate's diploma; O min – the lowest possible grade to obtain, on the scale in which the grade was given;; O max – the highest possible grade to obtain, on the scale in which the grade was given. The candidate at the stage of electronic registration is obliged to present the scale of the evaluation. The average should be confirmed with a supplement, and in the case of persons who obtained their diploma before 1 January 2005 and do not have a supplement - a certificate.
Foreign diploma	$W=100 * \frac{score - O \ min}{O \ max - O \ min}$ score – graduation score, as a rule the grade on the diploma, and in case of its absence: point score, average grade from the studies; O min – the lowest possible score to obtain, on the scale in which it was obtained; O max – the highest possible score to be achieved, on the scale in which it was obtained. When the result of the studies is expressed in letter form, the method of its conversion is determined by general rules adopted at the University. At the stage of electronic registration the candidate is obliged to present the scale in which the result was obtained.